Lawful basis for processing your personal information:

We will process your personal information on the following bases and for the following purposes;

Performance of a contract –

- We process personal data in order to provide our services and products, as well as information regarding our products and services based on the contractual relationship with our clients (i.e. so as to perform our contractual obligations). In addition, the processing of personal data takes place to enable the completion of our client on-boarding process.
- In view of the above, we must verify your identity in order to accept you as our client and we will use your personal data in order to effectively manage your trading/investment account with us. This may include third parties carrying out credit or identity checks on our behalf. The use of your personal information is necessary for us to know who you are, as we have a legal obligation to comply with “Know Your Customer” and customer due diligence regulatory obligations

Compliance with a legal obligation –

- There are a number of legal obligations imposed by relevant laws to which we are subject, as well as specific statutory requirements e.g. anti-money laundering laws, financial services laws, corporation laws, privacy laws and tax laws. There are also various supervisory authorities whose laws and regulations apply to us.
- Such obligations and requirements imposed on us necessary personal data processing activities for identity verification, payment processing, compliance with court orders, tax laws or other reporting obligations and anti-money laundering controls.
- These obligations apply at various times, including client on-boarding, payments and systemic checks for risk management.

For the purpose of safeguarding legitimate interests –

We process personal data so as to safeguard the legitimate interests pursued by us or by a third party. A legitimate interest is when we have a business or commercial reason to use your information. Example of such processing activities include the following:

- Initiating legal claims and preparing our defense in litigation procedures;
- Means and processes we undertake to provide for the Company's IT and system security, preventing potential crime, asset security and access controls;
- Measures for managing the business and for further developing products and services that best suits our overall client base.
- Sharing your data within the Defi access/ company for the purpose of updating and/or verifying your personal data in accordance with the relevant anti-money laundering compliance frameworks, and
- Risk management.

To provide you with products and services, or information about our products and services, and to review your ongoing needs –

- Once you successfully open an account with us, or subscribe to information, we must use your personal information to perform our services and comply with our obligations to you. It is also in our legitimate interests to try to ensure that we are providing the best products and services so we may periodically review your needs based on our assessment of your personal information to ensure that you are getting the benefit of the best possible products and services from us.

To help us improve our products and services, including support services, and develop and market new products and services –

- We may, from time-to-time, use personal information provided by you through your use of the services and/or through client surveys to help us improve our products and services. It is in our legitimate interests to use your personal information in this way to try to ensure the highest standards when providing you with our products and services and to continue to be a market leader within the cryptocurrency financial service industry.

To investigate or settle inquiries or disputes –

- We may need to use personal information collected from you to investigate issues or to settle disputes with you because it is our legitimate interest to ensure that issues and disputes get investigated and resolved in a timely and efficient manner.

To comply with applicable laws, subpoenas, court orders, other judicial process, or the requirements of any applicable regulatory authorities –

- We may need to use your personal information to comply with any applicable laws and regulations, subpoenas, court orders or other judicial processes, or requirements of any applicable regulatory authority. We do this not only to comply with our legal obligations but because it may also be in our legitimate interest to do so.

To send you surveys –

- From time to time, we may send you surveys as part of our client feedback process. It is in our legitimate interest to ask for such feedback to try to ensure that we provide our products and services at the highest standard. However, we may from time to time also ask you to participate in other surveys and if you agree to participate in such surveys we rely on your consent to use the personal information we collect as part of such surveys. All responses to any survey we send out whether for client feedback or otherwise will be aggregated and depersonalized before the results are published and shared.

Data analysis –

- Our website pages and emails may contain web beacons or pixel tags or any other similar types of data analysis tools that allow us to track receipt of correspondence and count the number of users that have visited our web-page or opened our correspondence. We may aggregate your personal information with the personal information of our other clients on an anonymous basis (that is, with your personal identifiers removed), so that more rigorous statistical analysis of general patterns may lead us to providing better products and services.
- If your personal information is completely anonymize, we do not require a legal basis as the information will no longer constitute personal information. If your personal information is not in an anonymize form, it is in our legitimate interest to continually evaluate that personal information to ensure that the products and services we provide are relevant to the market.

Internal business purposes and record keeping –

- Defi access/ may need to process your personal information for internal business and research purposes as well as for record keeping purposes. Such processing is in our own legitimate interests and is required in order to comply with our legal obligations. This may include any communications that we have with you in relation to the products and services we provide to you and our relationship with you. We will also keep records to ensure that you comply with your contractual obligations pursuant to the agreement (“Terms of Service”) governing our relationship with you.

Disclosure of your personal information –

- Defi access Company Ltd will not disclose any of its clients' confidential information to a third party, except: (a) to the extent that it is required to do so pursuant to any applicable laws, rules or regulations; (b) if there is a duty to disclose; (c) if our legitimate business interests require disclosure; (d) in line with our Terms of Service; (e) at your request or with your consent or to those described in this Privacy Notice. The Company will endeavour to make such disclosures on a "need-to-know" basis, unless otherwise instructed by a regulatory authority. Under such circumstances, the Company will notify the third party regarding the confidential nature of any such information.

Where we store your personal data –

- Our operations are supported by a network of computers, servers, and other infrastructure and information technology, including, but not limited to, third-party service providers. We and our third-party service providers and business partners store and process your personal data in the European Union, Japan, the United Kingdom, the United States of America and elsewhere in the world.

Privacy when using digital assets and blockchains –

- Your funding of bitcoin, XRP, USDT, PM, ether, and other Digital Assets on your Defi access/ may be recorded on a public blockchain.
- Public blockchains are distributed ledgers, intended to immutably record transactions across wide networks of computer systems. Many blockchains are open to forensic analysis which can lead to demonetization and the unintentional revelation of private financial information, especially when blockchain data is combined with other data.
- Because blockchains are decentralized or third-party networks which are not controlled or operated by Defi access or its affiliates, we are not able to erase, modify, or alter personal data from such networks.

Our products and services are not available to children –

- Our products and services are not directed to persons under the age of 18, hereinafter “Children”, “Child” and we do not knowingly collect personal information from Children. If we learn that we have inadvertently gathered personal information from a Child, we will take legally permissible measures to remove that information from our records.
- The Company will require the user to close his or her account and will not allow the use of our products and services. If you are a parent or guardian of a Child, and you become aware that a Child has provided personal information to us, please contact us at support@Defi access/ and you may request to exercise your applicable access, rectification, cancellation, and/or objection rights.
